Asia Week San Francisco Bay Area has announced the program schedule for the second annual edition of the West Coast's first, major region wide event celebrating Asian art - taking place September 30 - October 8, 2016. Thirty-three participants and partners comprised of private and non-profit venues including galleries, museums, arts organizations, universities and auction houses throughout the Bay Area will offer a week of public programming.

The week's planned events will engage dealers, artists, scholars, collectors and enthusiasts of Asian art, while also creating opportunities for the general public to discover new artworks and culturally distinct points of view within their communities.

For the up-to-date events calendar and a complete list of participants and partners, please visit:
